Dear Dr. Gates:

It was a privilege to attend the annual meeting of the White House Fellows and to hear your thoughtful and candid remarks to the Fellows. We all realize how busy your schedule must have been, and we certainly appreciate your taking the time to meet with us.

Having served in a variety of administrations and in positions throughout the government, we all understand the great stresses of life in Washington. We therefore also admire your fortitude and humor in handling the situations that you described for us.

Good luck and again many thanks for sharing your day with us.

Yours truly,

Nelson G. Dong
